

Goodbye

Andwellas Dream

Don't cry just say goodbye
I'll write a poem about us in the air
I'll make the great but if I don't
I won't be coming home
Sad enough and death for me

Please don't look so sad
You are all I have
Don't ask me to change my mind
I just won't the best for you

Speak when your words will make them listen
Never feel a freight of anyone
There's something what you know
Were you to tell you right from wrong
It will protect you when I'm gone

If you need a friend
My home bounds the end
I 've dyed all I can really do
The rest is up to you

Don't cry just say goodbye
I'll write a poem about us in the air
I'll make the great but if I don't
I won't be coming home
Sad enough and death for me
Sad enough and death for me
