

Castle - Halsey (Whitney Woerz Cover)

Whitney Woerz

Think about these people talking
Think about this noise
Inside of all these cameras flashing I think I'm being voiced
Now my neck is open wide
Lookin' for a fist around it
Already chokin' on my pride
So there's no crying about it

I'm headed straight for the castle
They want to make me their queen
And there's an old man sittin' on an throne and saying I shouldn't be so mean
i'm headed straight for the castle
They got the kingdom locked up
And there's an old man sittin' on a throne thats saying I should keep my pretty mouth shut
Straight for the castle
Oh all of these minutes passing
I think I'm feeling used
If you want to break these worlds down you're gonna get bruised
Now my neck is open wide
Lookin' for a fist around it
Already chokin' on my pride
So there's no use crying about it
Crying about it
Crying about it
I'm headed straight for the castle
They want to make me their queen
And there's an old man sittin' on a throne saying I shouldn't be so mean
I'm headed straight for the castle
They got the kingdom locked up
And there's an old man on a throne that's saying I should keep my pretty mouth shut
Straight for the castle
There's no use crying about it
There's no use crying about it
There's no use crying about it
I'm headed straight for the castle
They want to make me their queen
And there's an old man sittin' on a throne that's saying I shouldn't be so mean
I'm headed straight for the castle
They got the kingdom locked up

And there's an old man sittin' on a throne that's saying that I probably keep my pretty mouth shut
Straight for the castle
Straight for the castle
Straight for the castle
Straight for the castle
Straight for the castle
