

King Kong (Remix) ft. Chamillionaire & Lil Wayne

Jibbs

[Chorus]

King Kong, king, king, king, king kong, king

King Kong, king, king, king, king Kong

If you hear before you see me [x3]

I got king kong in the trunk

King kong, king, king, king, king Kong, King

King Kong, King, King, King, King Kong

If you hear before you see me

I got King, I got King Kong[Verse 1]

A yo this beat is bananas

A King Kong you can put 'em in the trunk of the McClaren

When we do it they fall off, fall off

When they look at my ride, you see the doors fall off

And the wheels look flat, trunk so heavy in the back

Got the speakers in the front, they be sitting on my lap

Got a bumper to the back, with the trunk weighing it down

Look they think it's a lowrider when they come from my town

That's a King Kong, in the trunk, that's the gorillas behind me

When I'm rolling through your hood anybody can find me

You can hear me from the next block

When I'm on the next block, when I'm headed to the next block

Got you jumping to the next block[Chorus]

King Kong, king, king, king, king kong, king

King Kong, king, king, king, king Kong

If you hear before you see me [x3]

I got king kong in the trunk

King kong, king, king, king, king Kong, King

King Kong, King, King, King, King Kong

If you hear before you see me

I got King, I got King Kong[Verse 2]

Lil' Momma got you stopping and dropping

When a man stop walking

So I told her she ain't talking about nothing, she just fronting

You can hear me from a block

And you already know what's up

With the women cause they feeling me how it rumble in the trunk I got 50 speakers up in my trunk and I turned it up

And all the ladies loving how it be bumping

They can check it out, you can hear before you see me

I got beats up in the trunk
 All the ladies want to chase me when they hear my system bump
 Say Jibbs I'm about to head out to the Bruin
 Holla at you about fedy, hit my celly soon as you ready
 Count this cheese like a deli
 They thought I was a lunatic when I pulled up to the telly
 I had that candy coated chevy, showing it's grill like it's nelly
 And the ladies love me why is that,
 They love the way I be getting my lean on Flip the diamond, and get a multi colored diamond bling on
 That King Kong, yea I bet ya this gon' be the theme song
 Cause that King Kong will have your ears ringing like a ring tone[Chorus]
 King Kong, king, king, king, king kong, king
 King Kong, king, king, king, king Kong
 If you hear before you see me [x3]
 I got king kong in the trunk
 King kong, king, king, king, king Kong, King
 King Kong, King, King, King, King Kong
 If you hear before you see me
 I got King, I got King Kong[Verse 3]
 Yea, yea, yea, yeah
 Them boys is knockin', I got it on lock
 Cause I make hits like I'm boxing
 Start it up and it sound like a block hit it
 Then a hater, hating inside, like don't pop with this
 See the beats will beat, ya hear me before you see me
 Before you even can reach me, it'll have ya thinking
 That this boy is a beast in the streets
 While ya blinking, have ya bopper looking like you been drinking
 I'll eat ya, it's like I have speakers in my speakers
 So when they speaking on it all they gon' speak of is a beaster boy
 So don't make me just treat ya to a feast
 A beast'll just beat off both of your ear drums[Chorus]
 King Kong, king, king, king, king kong, king
 King Kong, king, king, king, king Kong
 If you hear before you see me [x3]
 I got king kong in the trunk
 King kong, king, king, king, king Kong, King
 King Kong, King, King, King, King Kong
 If you hear before you see me
 I got King, I got King Kong
