

Good Enough To Keep (feat. Nile Rodgers & Fiora)

Tensnake

Never can get enough,
I just can't get enough,
Never can get enough, Crescent moon, lying here so restless in this empty room,
Just another night fulfill the thoughts of you,
I can hear the music on the street outside,
That this pain can't contain the feeling
I can't explain the way you took me by surprise,
And now you're on my mind. Just one more night I can make it,
Just one more time I can take it,
Oh oh so fine oh you're good enough to keep. Reminisce I can feel surrender in the way you kiss,
Got so sick of other love so hit and miss,
Baby we could loose ourselves and spend some time,
True romance until you eyes are as clear as mine,
Got me in a blood rush baby so sweet as wine,
I you blow my mind,
ohoh Just one more night I can make it,
Just one more time I can take it, (home)
Oh oh so fine you're good enough to keep.
Enough to keep, enough to keep, Just one more night I can make it,
Just one more time I can take it, (home)
Oh oh so fine you're good enough to keep.
Enough to keep, enough to keep,
Ooh Just one more night I can make it,
Just one more time I can take it, (home)
Oh oh so fine you're good enough to keep.
Enough to keep, enough to keep,
Ooh
