5 Will Get You Six

Blue Rodeo

Pointy two tonnes, echo down the street
The street, the street, the street, the street, whoa
Shiny buckles, jangle to the beat
The beat, the beat, the beat, the beat, whoa
Hair just right, he knows he's lookin' cool tonight
He hopes he finds her in the neon lightInsurrection acts just like a prayer
Bad intentions, collar turned against the wind
It's such a simple twist, you just flick the switch
It's so easy to forget a life like this, a life like thisHe doesn't care he's had a taste
(He doesn't care he's had a taste)
It's such a simple contortion
(Simple contortion)
No easy solution, it's an act of faithStill 5 will get you six if you play the dice right
(5 will get you six)
5 will get you six if you play the dice right
5 will get you six if you play the dice right
5 will get you six, boyInsurrection acts just like a prayer
Bad intentions, collar turned against the wind
It's such a simple twist, you just flick the switch
It's so easy to forget a life like this, a life like thisHe doesn't care he's had a taste
(He doesn't care he's had a taste)
It's such a simple contortion
(Simple contortion)
No easy solution, it's an act of faithStill 5 will get you six if you play the dice right
(5 will get you six)
5 will get you six if you play the dice right
5 will get you six if you play the dice right
5 will get you six, boy(5 will get you six, boy)
Yeah, 5 will get you six, boy
5 will get you six, boy
(5 will get you six, boy)
Yeah, 5 will get you six, boy
