

Twist (Extended Version)

Tones On Tail

As tomorrow's man and a topless bee
Jump over your head, remember me
Don't get confused by a dying sky and seaThe panda club has an odds on bet
Mr. Music man needs a string quartet
On the planet where the alphabet starts with ZEnergy and confidence
Buzz high in your consciousness
Don't get confused by an early morning rainCause the panda club has an odds on bet
Mr. Music man needs a string quartet
On the planet where the alphabet starts with ZMan and moon plays a melody
That you can't forget, so remember me
Twist with tomorrow's man and meMan and moon plays a melody
That you can't forget, so remember me
Twist with tomorrow's man and meTwist with tomorrow's man and me
Twist with tomorrow's man and me
