Smash

Murmurs

I dreamed that I knew the secret code
I cracked the formula and found the perfect note
Now it's so easy to give you what you need
Your face betrays you, it's not so hard to readBig head, backlash
I see your face and I wanna smash
Smash, gonna take me farYour charm, sweet sound, it's all for sale
Go climb Mount Everest, I can't afford to fail
A certain beauty, that million dollar smile
Just give them what they want before it's out of styleYou wanna smash
Smash, gonna take me far
Don't wanna crash
Crash, who do you think you are?Big head, backlash
I see your face and I wanna smash
Smash, gonna take me farHave her drink some poisoning
Can get so high, you forget how to thinkGo cry and crash
So dry, get trashed
No lie, all thrash
Oh my, more cashYou wanna smash
Smash, gonna take me far
Don't wanna crash
Crash, who do you think you are?You wanna smash
Smash, gonna take me far
Don't wanna crash
Crash, who do you think you are?You wanna smash
