

Turn My Head

Live

Anyone, caught in your mystery
Keep it angry, keep it wispy
I've fallen down, drunk on your juices Turn my head
Turn my head
It's aimed at you Funky temple, your dress is torn to shreds
Your eyes are crazy, I bowed to save my head and I can't forget you, but I can't remember Turn my head
Turn my head
It's aimed at you Turn my head
Turn my head
It's aimed at you, baby, baby Oh no, we came to love you all day
These bastards are leavin', somebody's got to stay
Whatever we called you, just a name, just a name Turn my head
(Turn my head)
Turn my head
It's aimed at you, yeah, now Turn my head
(Turn my head)
Turn my head
It's aimed at you
It's aimed at you
