

Marker in the Sand

Pearl Jam

There is a marker
No one sees it 'cause the sand
Has covered over all the messages it kept Misunderstanding, what original truth was
And out expanding, in a faith, but not in love
What went wrong? Walking tightrope high over moral ground
Seeing visions of falling up somehow
Do come down With the living let what is living love
So unforgiving, yet needing forgiveness first God, what do you say? Those undecided needn't have faith to be free
And those misguided, there was a plan for them to be
Now you got both sides claiming killing in god's name
But god is nowhere to be found, conveniently
What goes on? Walking tightrope high over moral ground
Walk the bridges before you burn them down
Do come round With the living let what is living love
Unforgiving, yet needing forgiveness first God, what do you say? What do you say? I feel a sickness. A sickness coming over me
Like watching freedom being sucked straight out to sea
And the solution? Well, from me far would it be
But the delusion is feeling dangerous to me
What goes wrong? Walking tightrope high over moral ground
Seeing visions of falling up somehow
Do come down With the living, let what is living love
Are forgiving, yet needing forgiveness first
What do you say? God, what do you say?
What do you say? Calling out, calling out
Calling out, calling out
