

Grateful

The Bangles

Carry you up in my arms
I hear you sing yourself to sleep
The sky opens up over your room
You sail into your moonlight dreams So much more than we can see
So much more than we can see All we are and all we need is
All we are and all we need is
All we are is all we need to be Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are and all we need is)
(All we are and all we need is)
Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are and all we need is)
(All we are and all we need) I play this guitar, sing these songs
It changes me, instantly, love is too simple a word
For here comes the sun in the morning Suddenly happiness comes rolling out from inside me All we are and all we need is
All we are and all we need is
All we are is all we need to be Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are and all we need is)
(All we are and all we need is)
Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are and all we need is)
(All we are and all we need) Carry you up in my arms
I hear you sing yourself to sleep
The sky opens up over your room
Sail into your moonlight dreams So much more than we can see
So much more than we can see All we are and all we need is
All we are and all we need is
All we are is all we need to be Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are and all we need is)
(All we are and all we need is)
Grateful, oh grateful
(All we are is all we need to be)
