Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

It's been a while since I've seen you smile
But now you've come back again
Came into the room and you saw my girl
And you asked her, "How long it's been?" "A year" she said
And you shook your head
Said "I'm surprised it's gone on that long" Baby, baby, baby bitch
For words I am at a loss
Baby, baby, baby bitch
I'm better now, please fuck off What else you gonna say when While you're back on your stay
Maybe something, maybe nothing, we'll see
It's just too bad, you're beautiful I guess
I wasn't for you and you weren't for me Baby, baby, baby bitch
Please slip back into yourself
Baby, baby, baby bitch
Go conquer someone else People say, "How beautiful, how sweet, how kind"
You're perfect, you've got nothing to hide
But I, for one, have seen the sun
And the bitch that you've locked up inside Got fat, got angry, started hating myself
Wrote, "Birthday boy" for you babe
Now I'm skinny and sick and paranoid
Without a cent to my name Baby, baby, baby bitch
Fuck you, you stinkin' ass ho
Most beauty I've seen, you come from a dream
But I can't close my eyes anymore
No, I can't close my eyes anymore
I can't close my eyes anymore
