Raindrops

Roy Orbison

Raindrops, raindrops
I look out my window and what do I see?
Raindrops, raindrops
They mark the pathway to my destiny
Raindrops, raindropsYes, rain like the tears that fell from my heart
The day you said, we'd have to part
And now what's left for me to do?
But watch those raindrops and cry over youYou've stolen my love and my heart away
Raindrops, raindrops
And I'll feel the same for the rest of my days
Raindrops, raindropsWell, I've tried yes I've tried I want you to know
I did what you asked, I loved you so
But I knew in my heart, it wouldn't be long
Till I'd look up and you'd be gone

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/