T. Kline's Decline

Days Away

Nothing's happened but I still shake
I'm running out of time here.
And I'm not worried but I won't break
if you scream.
You say that you feel safe
It means nothing.Believe me, not because I want you to.If I say this,
It shouldn't matter if we both fall down.
I was hoping now
That maybe I could make you come around.I've been trying hard.
And the last thing that I said I meant.
But then I said I felt lucky and didn't mean it.Believe me, not because I need you to.If I say this,
It shouldn't matter if we both fall down.
I was hoping now
That maybe I could make you come around.I'm calling on angels.
They're coming down
to find it's all...
I'm calling on angels.
Just to figure it out.
They'll find it's all a lie, it's all a lie.Is anybody here?
Is anybody...
