

Darlin', Darlin', Baby (Sweet, Tender Love)

The O'Jays

You're my darlin', darlin', baby
You're my darlin', darlin', love
You're my darlin', darlin', baby I said, you're everything I ever hoped for in a woman
And as long as I may live
Uh, you're my darlin', darlin', baby
You're my sweet and tender love You're a very special lady
I said, you're the one that I always dreamed of in a woman
I'll give all that I can give
I'll give you plenty of love Because you deserve the best
You should everything, a queen sittin' on a throne should have
You deserve to have it all
And I'm gonna do my best
To give it to you, to give it to you, to give it to you Uh, you're my darlin', darlin', baby
You're my sweet and tender love
You're a very special lady
I said, you're everything I ever hoped for in a woman And as long as we may live
I'll give you plenty of love because you deserve the best
'Cause you're better than the rest
You're my queen on a throne, the one that I wanna own And all the things that you desire
I'll do my best
To give it to you, to give it to you, to give it to you
Uh, you're my darlin', darlin', baby You're my sweet and tender love
You're a very special lady
You're my, come on, come on (Darling, darling) Baby, you're my
(Sweet and tender)
Uh, you're my
(Very special lady) And I need you
(Darling, darling)
Oh, baby well, ah, you're my (Sweet and tender) Baby, you're my very special lady
(Very special lady)
Well, well, you're my
(Darling, darling) You deserve to have the best
(Sweet and tender)
Believe me, baby, 'cause you're better than the rest
(Very special lady) So much better, you're my
(Darling, darling)
Ah, uh, well, you're my

(Sweet and tender) You can believe you're my very
(Very special lady)
Girl, I just wanna give it to you, give it to you, give it, give it, give it to you
(Darling, darling) (Sweet and tender)
Oh, you're my
(Very special lady)
