

Dark Insanity

Arch Enemy

Weak and sick I crawl
In the dust of past mistakes
Leaving for the darkness
Of tears and cold heartaches Suffer in this grief
Of forever burning hate
The ashes of my life
By the torment you create On my knees
Remembering
The wasted years
Of dark insanity The rage increases fast
As the memories eat me alive
God, I wish this to end
But I'm not prepared to die No more a human being
Just a fool of anxiety
Unable to escape
The darkest insanity On my knees
Remembering
The wasted years
Of dark insanity
