Tomorrow

Stratovarius

I 'm staring out the window
Wondering will I soon know
The answers to the questions within
Where should I begin
I 'm delusioned by a clear crystal night
While trying to find some insight
The solution is close at hand yet still so far away
I 'll turn the tables 'round and find another way
I 'll leave all this behind and move on todayI will take things as they come
Look out for number one
And I 'll be back tomorrow
Feeling strong and brave inside
My head up high with pride
Yes I 'll be back tomorrowI 'm facing my nightmares again
Determined that I won 't bend
Now the answers are coming to me
I 'm learning how to believe
I know now that this is the way
I 've found my red-letter day
I've been there out on a limb
But now I 've finally come inI 've turned the tables 'round and found another way
I 've left it all behind for a better day
