The Girl for Me Tonight

Peter Cincotti

I can see the yearning in your eyes
I can see the hunger you disguiseI know that it's for me, so here's your chance to be
The lucky girl for me to love tonightI'll be glad to take you on a ride
Satisfy your craving deep insideBut this I'm telling you, tomorrow we'll be through You're just the girl for me to love tonightCome tonight and see, all that life can be
Say, "Yes" and I will show you paradise
Come and you will know, the land where pleasures grow
A world that's bound to make you hypnotizedIf you wait, temptation starts to burn
And it's a way you're sole until you learn
That you want me even more, so before I close the door
Are you the girl for me to love tonight?Come tonight and see, all that life can be
Say, "Yes" and I will show you paradise
Come and you will know, the land where pleasures grow
A world that's bound to make you hypnotizedIf you wait, temptation starts to burn
And it's a way you are sole until you learn
That you want me even more, so before I close the door
Are you the girl for me to love tonight?
