

Reconsider Everything

311

How many times will they do the same thing?
How did they get programmed to your following?
Everyones locked up in their suffering
The only way you can tell is reconsider everythingWhat if the truth is that there is no truth?
The only thing I can prove is there is no proof
Dont be so sure that your source is correct
People believed it before, before they checkedHow many times can they tell you
'Til you just give them the way
How many times can you sell
'Til you let them have their sayEvery time you will ignore your heart
It will come back twice more
Never deny your own instinct
Reconsider everythingEverybody wants something they control
Some just want grass, some, they want gold
Either way does it feel good or feel low
Taking you down not fast but real slowRebellion done for its own sake
Does not a true free thinker make
To go against for its own sake
You're still controlled by the course that the other man takesReconsider everything, reconsider everything
Reconsider everything, reconsider everything
Reconsider everything, reconsider everything
Reconsider everything
