Turn You On

Paris Hilton

Everybody's lookin' at me
But that's alright I like attention
The club's not hot until I walk through
They stop and stare and watch me move
Damn, I like that
I'm sexy and you know it, clap your hands, it's like that
I'm not afraid to show it, understand, yeah, I'm hot bitch
Don't be mad at me, go check your man
Girls and boys are looking at me I can't blame 'em 'cause I'm sexy
Don't care who's watching me, I do just what I want
Just 'cause I dance with you, don't mean you're getting some
Don't get excited, baby, 'cause I might turn you on
Turn you on, turn you out, give you something to write about
All the boys are lookin' up at me
As I dance on the tabletop
Tonight I'll be your liquid dream
They want a piece of what I got
They feel like damn, I like that She's sexy and she's shakin' all on me, it's like that I'm hot and I can't take it, I need a drink, yeah, I'm hot bitch
Shes cooler than I ever thought she'd be
Girls and boys are looking at me I can't blame 'em 'cause I'm sexy
Don't care who's watching me I do just what I want
Just 'cause I dance with you don't mean you're getting some
Don't get excited, baby, 'cause I might turn you on
Turn you on, turn you out, give you something to write about
Don't dance too close I might turn you on Don't try to impress me, my paper's long
Tell me now that you'll read my shits aloud
We can dance all night, but you ain't gettin' none, none
Sorry I turn you on, take a cold shower when you get home
Girls and boys are looking at me, I can't blame 'em 'cause I'm sexy
Don't care who's watching me I do just what I want
Just 'cause I dance with you don't mean you're getting some
Don't get excited, baby, 'cause I might turn you on
Turn you on, turn you out, give you something to write about
