

Hedley

I heard a distant early warning
 But I chose to ignore it
 It came back and bit me
 Seems like we're victims of bad timing
 'Cause you wanted more than I did
 I can't give you what you need She said "hold me, hold me, closely, closely"
 That's when I should have ran
 3-2-1, it's the final meltdown I want out now
 I wish I would've known to doubt you
 I'm better off alone without you
 3-2-1, it's the same old story, love gets gory
 Why'd we have to go and change things?
 Now touching you is such a strange thing I got so caught up in the moment
 That I forgot what it all meant
 But still I'd do it all again
 You said, "no strings attached, I'm wild"
 I didn't know you're in denial
 And you became my ball and chain She said "hold me, hold me, closely, closely"
 That's when I should have ran
 3-2-1, it's the final meltdown I want out now
 I wish I would've known to doubt you
 I'm better off alone without you
 3-2-1, it's the same old story, love gets gory
 Why'd we have to go and change things?
 Now touching you is such a strange thing She said "hold me, hold me, closely, closely"
 "Hold me, hold me, closely, closely"
 That's when I should have ran 3-2-1, it's the final meltdown I want out now
 I wish I would've known to doubt you
 I'm better off alone without you
 3-2-1, it's the same old story, love gets gory
 Why'd we have to go and change things?
 Now touching you is such a strange thing She's holding on while she can
 Why'd we have to go and change things?
 She's holding on while she can
 Now touching you is such a strange thing She's so out of hand
 I'm dreading all the baggage and what it brings
 She's so out of hand
 But still I'd do it all again.
