(Love you)

Fuck you, fuck you and you stink

You funny, rank looking ass, ugly baby (I do love you)

I hope they come up with a new ass whopping just for you

That some scientist's gather a group

And they do research, need tax dollars and everything (I do love you)

In a secret lab and they test and the product and it develops

Every little thing to find a new and inventive way to whoop your ass

That's what I hope

(I do love you)

I hope there's a new way to put my foot up your ass one day

We got fucking talking watches now and I hope they come up

That as soon they have the funds, they have a new way to whoop your ass (I do love you)

I hope somebody comes into your house and pisses all over everything

And haphazardly their piss is very flammable

And they light that bitch up and your house burns to the ground (I do love you) I've been close to moving you out the way but I still love you (I do love you)

Sometimes you drive a nigga crazy, but I still fucks with you (I really do)
