

Just Right

Tessa Violet

You were too much,
then all at once you were just enough.
You're just right, you're the perfect temp
in my coffee cup when I've overslept.

You are complete,
the final chord in the even beat,
you're the perfect rhyme
in the perfect time.

Please can I make you mine?Don't want to make do,
just want to tell you

I like you.

Bells keep ringing.
Don't want to get by,
can't keep it inside;

I like you.

My heart keeps singingLa la la la la la la

La la la la la la la

Oo oo wah ah

(x2)You are the best,

the battery poundin' in my chest.

If we're playing space and we have to dock,
You will be my Kirk, I will be your Spock.

You're the bee's knees,

a sunny day with a cool breeze.

You're the night time drive in my favorite tee.

Please will you marry me?Don't want to make do,

just want to tell you

I like you.

Bells keep ringing.
Don't want to get by,
can't keep it inside;

I like you.

My heart keeps singingLa la la la la la la

La la la la la la la

Oo oo wah ah

(x2)I think you are perfect even though you don't agree, and maybe 'cause you're lookin', you just see what you will see.

But baby if you're lookin', grow old with me.I wanna know what it is too tell you I like you all the time.

Woah oh oh o-oh

I wanna know how it feels have our fingers intertwine.

Woah oh oh o-ohDon't want to make do,

just want to tell you

I like you.

Bells keep ringing.

Don't want to get by,

can't keep it inside;

I like you.

My heart keeps singingLa la la la la la la

La la la la la la la

Oo oo wah ah

(x2)
