Over the Line

Turning Point

I see things in people
That you're too blind to see
A life filled with fucking hate
Is not the life for me
And I know you have a right to speak
But that right is also mine
So when you've pushed your values on me
You've put one foot over the line
You talk about fighting
But what did it bring
Your so called justice
Has not proved a fucking thing
And where do you get the idea
That one race is supreme
Equality between us all
Is what I fucking dream
I know my dream seems hopeless
But take a look at yours
Spent your life hating and fighting
But you never knew what for
So when you hit the floor
Don't look to me for help
It's your responsibility
You brought it on yourself
I try to turn my back
And ignore the things you say
But that's not solving anything man
There must be a better way
A better way
