Already Missing You

Gerald Levert, Eddie Levert

Driving all night just to say goodbye
Windows down, hearing the wind
Hang up the phone but I'm feeling all night
Empty pillows, 2 AMI cannot pretend I won't be lonely
Every minute that you're gone
But trust me, in the end it will be worth it
'Cause baby you're the oneI can't even face the daylight
'Cause I'm already missing you
Baby we'll say we'll be alright
But I'm already missing youYou got me lo-lo-lo-loving you
Lo-lo-lo-loving you
You got me lo-lo-lo-loving you
Lo-lo-lo-loving youLoving you
Loving youI'm missing your touch, I'm missing your smile
Love to feel your hands on my skin
Feeling a rush, it makes me go wild
Crazy how you know what I thinkI cannot pretend that won't be lonely
Every minute that you're gone
But trust me, in the end it will be worth it
'Cause baby you're the oneI can't even face the daylight
'Cause I'm already missing you
Baby we'll say we'll be alright
But I'm already missing youYou got me lo-lo-lo-loving you
Lo-lo-lo-loving you
You got me lo-lo-lo-loving you
Lo-lo-lo-loving youBaby I can't close my eyes
Wishing I just have the hands of time
If it's close, that's forever
Forever, we gotta live our lives
But that won't stop me from loving youI can't even face the daylight
'Cause I'm already missing you
Baby we'll say we'll be alright
But I'm already missing youYou got me lo-lo-lo-loving you
Lo-lo-lo-loving you
You got me lo-lo-lo-loving you
Lo-lo-lo-loving youLoving you
Loving youDriving all night just to say goodbye
Windows down, hearing the wind
I'm mad at myself, I'm struggling now

But we've done this again and again
