Is This Real

22 Hertz

Time's runnin' out, and I have been betrayed
Gotta cast my stone into the lake
(It didn't work, I didn't feel it sink in)
That's all it takes, my son, then you are safe
When the end comes, everything's okay
(We take it back, you take it away)
Take my skin, we're diving in
It doesn't make a difference if I sink or swim
There's a line drawn thin, or so they tell me
I'll never know the difference if we sink or swim
Is it real, the choices that we make
(Is it real? Is it real?)
The smiles that we fake
I know it hurts, but is it real?
The choices that we make
(Is it real?)
The smiles that we fake, for my own sake
I know it hurts, but is it?
I can't help feelin' like I've been betrayed
You shoulda cast that stone into the lake
(Stone into the lake)
Chased in the wrong direction, led astray
And I know you don't believe a single word you say
(I can't believe that you can)
Take my skin, we're diving in
(We're diving in)
It doesn't make a difference if I sink or swim
There's a line drawn thin, or so they tell me
I'll never know the difference if we sink or swim
Is it real, the choices that we make
(Is it real? Is it real?)
The smiles that we fake
I know it hurts, but is it real?
The choices that we make
(Is it real?)
The smiles that we fake, for my own sake
I know it hurts, but is this real?
Is this real?
I don't want to buy into the lie

Stare up at the sky, but is it real?
Show me somethin' real
I don't want to buy into your lies
Stare up at the sky and say
"I'll surrender myself for this
I'll take the blame"
(I'll take the blame)
"I'll surrender myself for this
I'll take the blame"
(Oh, oh, oh)
For peace or war, for rich or poor
For loss, for gain, for everything that I loved
I see, I feel, I've become one with words not real to me
So I'll stare in silence, forward, backwards
Just to realize we all fall down
Is it real, the choices that we make
(Is it real? Is it real?)
The smiles that we fake
Just tell me, is this real?
The choices that we make
(Is it real?)
The smiles that we fake, for my own sake
I know it hurts, but is this real?
Is this real?
(Is it real?)
I need to know, is this real?
