

Warm and Willing

Nat King Cole

Love is for the warm and willing
Waiting for the warm and willing
Love is ours to take or toss aside
Take this promise to your heart
And let your lips repeat
"Kisses are too sweet to be denied"
Show me that you're warm and willing
Make each golden moment thrilling
Give my empty arms a welcome sign
We can make the stars go spinning
And the earth stand still
If you're warm and willing to be mine
Show me that you're warm and willing
Make each golden moment thrilling
Give my empty arms a welcome sign
We can make the stars go spinning
And the earth stand still
If you're warm and willing to be mine
It would be heavenly
If you're warm and willing to be mine
