Goodbye Goodbye

So They Say

Choking on lies,
Making the best of a bad conversation
Your eyes dried as I tried sleeping in your bed
To fake another smile and take with me what was mine
While racing to you forever

We're waking up and It's 6:00 o' clock
Did you ever think things could be the same
If we happened to wake up late

[Chorus x2]
Don't let go
Don't let go
We both know It's sad to say
That this time it's good-bye good-bye

Giving applause for you
Always pointing out everyone's flaws
And breaking what binds you (what binds you)
'Cause your moving on with your life
After tonight you said last night all alone
I hope you change someday for your own good

We're waking up and It's 6:00 o' clock
Did you ever think things could be the same
If we happened to wake up late

[Chorus x5]

Goodbye!
