

Break The Fall

Scars of Tomorrow

Break the fall
For all the hate in this world
Now you're torn between
Your empty thoughts
Run your mind into a million thoughts
They flow through you like poison
Change
And you've changed
Into something I wasn't ready for
Now you're torn between your empty thoughts
Of another day's lost cause
End this hate
Break the fall for what's inside
