Bubba Sparxxx

I want to run, I've been runnin' for some time now
My time has come, I think I'll turn myself in now
I want to run, oh, I've been runnin' for some time now
My time has come, I think I'll turn myself in now
Wake up and kiss my baby, grab my weed and my gun
Load it and cock it and blaze one up, that's how it be on the run
More money more problems, no money yo problems ain't gone die
Put 5 in the tank, I'm high and I'm bad news, don't ask me for no ride
When I look at my daughter and son and I see me in their eyes
It hurt so bad I hope the mistakes I made will keep them alive
I keep pushin' looking for a lick to hit shit I need some cheese
Gotta go no sleepin' for me mamma I gotta leave
And if God is on my side then one day soon I'll get where I gotta be I'm free ain't nothin' gone stop me from seein' what I gotta see
Not even me
The day I cop a plea gone be the day that I can't even breathe
All the shit that I go through, if I could show you, you wouldn't believe
All I got is my Bible and me and this rifle my last name ain't Mavoe
I'm just a survivor
Been gone from home so long some folks thank that I died
It's cool and if I don't get rich I'm thankful that I'm alive besides
I got a warrant out for me, and I'm walkin' a thin line
I got a warrant out for me, and I'm walkin' a thin line
I'm runnin' with the same ol' car, the same ol' girl
A little bit of money in this insane world
I got a warrant out for me and I'm walkin' a thin line
It's strictly for survival this time
Still I do not want what's yours unless it's rightfully mine
It really just ain't no words at least that I can define
For how I feel lord please some sight to the blind
'Cause I'm scrambling down the same road
Travelin' in the same clothes
Feelin' 2 million days old can't let all this take hold
'Cause see I always saw myself as just a little more special than
These sappy crappy no rappin' whoever's collectin' fans
I'm doin' the best I can I just need a better plan
I still ain't in peace with flyin' 'cause my plane has yet to land
I'm runnin' and runnin' my stomach's grumbling but I ain't Hungry enough that I'm just disgusted because I can't

Ever make what I think translate into what I say
Unless I pour this vodka in that big cup and chug away
I wanna just run away from what I've become today
A rebel with a warrant and his name is say Bubba K
I got a warrant out for me, and I'm walkin' a thin line
I got a warrant out for me, and I'm walkin' a thin line
I'm runnin' with the same ol' car, the same ol' girl
A little bit of money in this insane world
I got a warrant out for me and I'm walkin' a thin line
This is heart it ain't a verse pick yo fruit name yo curse
With all the pain that is life dyin' hurts lyin' is worse
Drive my hearst down 85m to mommas house in Lagrange
Drop me off on the porch then send my off in a plane
Forget my namem 'til God arrives to show all y'all what Bubba meant
To tamper with how we wrote the script clearly don't make fuckin' sense
And not a thing that's pure to me it's contaminated by your device
'Cause a wise man once said eternity's and let go of life
I want to run, I've been runnin' for some time now
My time has come, I think I'll turn myself in now
I want to run, oh, I've been runnin' for some time now
My time has come, I think I'll turn myself in now
(I'm thankful I'm alive)
I got a warrant out for me, and I'm walkin' a thin line
I got a warrant out for me, and I'm walkin' a thin line
I want to run, oh, I've been runnin' for some time now
My time has come, I think I'll turn myself in now
(I'm thankful I'm alive)
(I got a warrant out for me)
I want to run, I've been runnin' for some time now
(I got a warrant out for me)
Night time has come, I think I'll turn myself in now
(I'm thankful I'm alive)
(I got a warrant out for me)
I want to run, I've been runnin' for some time now
(And I'm walkin' a thin line)
My time has come I think I'll turn myself in now
(I'm thankful I'm alive)
(I got a warrant out for me, and I'm walkin' a thin line)
