

Your Best Friend

Seaway

Are you aware we're the last ones left at Jamie's?
I guess she's calling it early tonight
Because no one was even wasted
But you drowned yourself out alright I hate when you whisper to me that you think
You should be the one who could be taking me home
Because you've got problems and I've never asked to solve them So don't be a stranger, but don't get too close
I've told you one too many times
You can't have it all
I've told myself so many times
We can't have it all And it breaks my heart to tell you but I gotta play this right
Yeah, I gotta play this right
Because your best friend's my girlfriend
Don't you go crying now, because your best friend's my girlfriend
Don't you go crying now, because your best friend's my girlfriend I've told you one too many times you can't have it all
I've told myself so many times we can't have it all And it breaks my heart to tell you but I gotta play this right
Yeah, I gotta play this right
Because your best friend's my girlfriend Don't you go crying now, because your best friend's my girlfriend
Don't you go crying now, because your best friend's my girlfriend We had our chance then back in 2010
But I just didn't fit the part
I bet you wish I had Don't you go crying now because your best friend's my girlfriend
Don't you go crying now And it breaks my heart to tell you
Don't you go crying now, because your best friend's my girlfriend
Don't you go crying now, because your best friend's my girlfriend
We had our chance then back in 2010
But I just didn't fit the part
I bet you wish I had We had our chance then back in 2010
But I just didn't fit the part
I kinda wish you had
