Come Running

Sol Seppy

i'm a prisoner in the night taken captive like the light i just can't forget you i've been frozen in my tracks i've been broken right in half but i couldn't help but let you roll, stroll like a voodoo inside my soul strange, daze
melted my self control any old excuse at all allyou have to do is call baby don't you know that i'll come running any time of night or day anywhere or anyway

you'd have thought i knew the score that i'd seen this all before guess who's got my number you held me helpless as a child as you slowly you drove me wild and i didn't stop to wonder why, try there's no explaining this spell tossed, lost
you know you do it so well
