

Anybody Else

Matt White

[Verse 1]

We used to talk about nothin'
Every day after school.
You could try, deny, the mutual attraction,
I could tell you weren't no fool.
And if you're feelin' lonely,
Only one call away.
You could try,
but I, need some more affection.
And what else can I say.

[Chorus]

Oh baby why can't you see,
You're makin' such a fool of me,
And I don't want you lovin' anybody else.
Oh baby why can't you see,
I wear my heart out on my sleeve,
And I don't want you lovin' anybody else.

[Verse 2]

I couldn't say you're my girlfriend,
Didn't mean to play with your head.
I would try, to find,
Something else to tell you.
Something to tell all I'm your friend.
And now I'm feelin' so stupid,
Lonely days, by myself.
I won't compete,
To see, that this is all just nonsense,
Or how lovesick I could be.

[Chorus]

Oh baby why can't you see,
You're makin' such a fool of me,
And I don't want you lovin' anybody else.
Oh baby why can't you see,
I wear my heart out on my sleeve,
And I don't want you lovin' anybody else.

(Na,na,na,na)

[Chorus]

Oh baby why can't you see,
You're makin' such a fool of me,
And I don't want you lovin' anybody else.

Oh baby why can't you see,
I wear my heart out on my sleeve,
And I don't want you lovin' anybody else.

I just don't want you lovin' anybody else [x3]

Oh baby... shoop, shoop...
