

That Special Girl

The Ataris

I need a girl who like to go to shows
I need a girl that won't make fun of my clothes.
I'm looking for a special girl who wants to go all over the world,
If you're my special girl won't you let me know? Do you have a boyfriend?
Or possibly a girlfriend?
Cause! I'm lonely all the time
And I wish that it would end. I need a girl that likes to stay out late,
We'd share a cocktail, wouldn't it be great?
If only this were true then I would fall in love with you,
I'm looking for a special girl, could it be you? I could write a stupid love song,
And sing it all across the world
But it wouldn't mean a thing.
Until I find my special girl. When will I find my special girl?
