World Boss (feat. Ben Harper)

Gov't Mule

Rich man shaking in his shoes
Poor man drowning in his blues
Lovely ladies take their place in line
People on the street yelling "it's time, it's time"World boss is coming
World boss is comingBusiness man sold everything he owns
Junkie's pretending he ain't never jonesed
Politician sneaking through the crowd
Super savior soldier cries out loud
"everybody have you heard the news?"World boss is coming
World boss is coming
