I Luv I Jah

Bad Brains

Walking down babylon lane. Trying to live my life in peace. Two young men call me not their brother, try to make me feel ashamed. But I luv I jah yeah, he tell me not to be that way. I luv I jah, yeah, I gotta keep my PMA. My lovely sister, judge me by my closthes, yeah. Only to learn to her mistake not everyone's alike. We're not all a uptight. Ah no fuss no fight. Cool that way, cool that way. I luv I jah.
