

Single Looks Good

Clayton Gardner

â€œI haven't seen you, but I know you're here. All my buddies made it crystal clear, that you walked in, & they said you was lookin' fine. I've never seen you wear a dress that tight, you're stoppin' hearts as you walk by. I order up a double, 'cause it's gonna be a long night.

I didn't know you could dance, like that. Since when, have you shot Jack? Got my head spinnin', throwing me off track. I could think of little ways to try to bring you back, but I just enjoy the view. By the way, baby. Single looks good, on you.

Whatever you're doin' girl, yours doin' it right. Tan skin glowin', in the neon light. Makin' it hard for a man, to look away. You got me replayin' all night long, tryin' to pinpoint where I went wrong. I'm hung up, but it's clear you're movin' on.

Damn. I didn't know you could dance, like that. Since when, have you shot Jack? Got my head spinnin', throwing me off track. I could think of little ways to try to bring you back, but I just enjoy the view. By the way, baby. Single looks good, on you.

Aw, come on.

Woo.

Damn. I didn't know you could dance, like that. Since when, have you shot Jack? Got my head spinnin', throwing me off track. I could think of little ways to try to bring you back, but I just enjoy the view. By the way, baby. Single looks good, on you.
By the way baby, single looks good.
