What I Like

Charli Xcx

You call me up at six, come 'round undressing in my house again
Your T-shirt's on the floor
Yeah we're undressing in my house again
You know just what I like, I like, I like.
You call me up at six, come 'round undressing in my house again
Your T-shirt's on the floor
Yeah we're undressing in my house again
You know just what I like, I like, I like.
Used to come around, you'll be knocking on my front door
Playing board-games, horror films with the secret door.
Thought that you were cute from the start, yeah I'm pretty sure
You were like the medicine, the medicine I wanted more
All along I wanted someone to laugh with Found the guy I want the rest of my life with Ha, we on some husband and wife shit
I don t really care cause I know that I like it
And when the clouds part open
When the last word is spoken
When the last heart's been broken
We'll be sitting on your bedroom floor still smoking
And when the clouds part open
When the last word is spoken
When the last heart's been broken
We'll be sitting on your bedroom floor still smoking
Smoking, smoking

You call me up at six, come 'round undressing in my house again
Your T-shirt's on the floor
Yeah we're undressing in my house again
You know just what I like, I like, I like.
You call me up at six, come 'round undressing in my house again
Your T-shirt's on the floor
Yeah we're undressing in my house again
You know just what I like, I like, I like.
Oh now I got a plan, I hope you gonna be my man
I can see us crushy and my house right by the ocean sand
And when I'm one to cry, I hope you gonna hold my hand
And when they shake us down, I hope you gonna make a stand
This shit is super wild, this shit is super cool

This shit is kinda gangsta, I think I'm into you
This shit is super wild, this shit is super cool
This shit is kinda gangsta, I think I'm into you
You call me up at six, come 'round undressing in my house again
Your T-shirt's on the floor
Yeah we're undressing in my house again
You know just what I like, I like, I like.
You call me up at six, come 'round undressing in my house again
Your T-shirt's on the floor
Yeah we're undressing in my house again
You know just what I like, I like, I like.
