

Love In the Ruins

Buddy Miller

Love in the ruins
After the fall
What were we doing not thinking at all
I'll take the chair for there's no one to blame
Someone just called me or was that just your name
But regret is a debt that I just can't pay
Cause it would be more than I could ever make
Turn left when we get to that place in the road
Or we'll be on the one we shouldn't take
In wasn't our fault probably mine
It covered up our hearts
So they couldn't shine
Let not feel guilty
Have us a bright ?
One time we really kept too much in-side
Now I can't tell a lie like the ones before
That would be more than I could ever fake
History can repeat like it did on us before
Or will be on the one we didn't take
Love in the ruins
After the fall
What were we doing not thinking at all

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>