Haunted Palace

Manilla Road

A fair and stately palace
Gone mad within itself
No life around the forest
Circling the monarch's realmThe curse of generations
Upon the Usher clan
Turned life to desolation
Laid waste to fruitful landHaunted PalaceSacrificial blood stains
The family born to fall
Never to break evil's chains
Brought forth by ancient callDistortion of the senses
Damnation of the soul
The palace of the breathless
Where death's bell takes it's tollHaunted PalaceDestruction of Foundations
Both of the mind and mass
Caused by incantations
Of family members pastInner plane disturbance
Crumbling every wall
Tormented by existence
The Haunted Palace fallsHaunted Palace
