

Moondreams

Buddy Holly

Strange things take place in my moondreams
As the lonely and loveless hours go by
Your face takes its place in every moonbeam
Moondreams bring thoughts gentle as a sigh I see your smile in my moondreams
I can see your love light shining in your eyes
In my heart I can feel love so warm, love so real
Moondreams shining on paradise Moondreams can be a sensation
Moondreams may be fascination
Love can be our destination
You and I can share this dream Wishing for you in my moondreams
As the lonely and loveless hours go by
Will do until you can share all my dreams
Moondreams, moondreams
Moondreams brought by moon beams in the sky
