If I Run

Sara Evans

You know they say that your first heartbreak
Can forever change the way you see love
But ask anyone who's had it broken more than once
They'll say it's twice as hard to get your heart to trustSo baby, can you tell me this
Can I count on all your promises
Are you gonna be the one that sticksIf I run
Baby, will you chase me
Be the one who wants to save me
Never walk away no matter what
If I was lost
Would you come and find me
When I forget would you remind me
Who I am will always be enough
If I run
If I runI don't wanna make you feel bad
Or make you pay for the past
I'm so sorry that sometimes
I get twisted upI'm not saying that I doubt the way you feel
I'm not saying what you're saying isn't real
I just really wanna know the dealIf I run
Baby, will you chase me
Be the one who wants to save me
Never walk away no matter what
If I was lost
Would you come and find me
When I forget would you remind me
Who I am will always be enough
If I run
If I runAnd if I'm broken
Feeling hopeless
I gotta know it
Really know it
Yeah, ohIf I run
Baby, will you chase me
Be the one who wants to save me
Never walk away no matter what
Oh, if I was lost
Would you come and find me
When I forget would you remind me

Who I am will always be enough
If I run
If I run
Baby, if I run
If I run
