Wake Up

Kristian Stanfill

Wake up, oh sleeper, rise and awake
Heaven is calling, no time to waste
Eyes on the skyline, watch for the Son
Over the hilltop His glory will come
Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up
Wake from your slumber, see the display
Glory and passion are calling your days
Move to the rhythm, join in the song
We're singing of freedom, and unfailing love
Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up
Wake up
(Your life awaits)
Wake up
(Leave your wasted days)
Wake up
(Feel the rush of life)
Wake up
(Open up your eyes, wake up)
I hear Your voice in the morning light
You call my name, You're calling me to rise
I stand in You, here in Your perfect love
I lift my voice, because the word is out to rise and
Wake up
(Your life awaits)
Wake up
(Leave your wasted days)
Wake up
(Feel the rush of life)
Wake up
(Open up your eyes, wake up)
I hear Your voice in the morning light
You call my name, You're calling me to rise
I stand in You, here in Your perfect love
I lift my voice, because the word is out to rise and
Wake up
