Oni

Adam Ronin

My soul is dead

Those demons yeah they won today yeah
They took everything that I know and eviscerated me from my heart to my soul
Now i'm stuck in a goddamn hole
Now i'm stuck with the demons
Already now my soul is dead

Yeah my soul is dead and i've been that way for a while Nothings gonna change my brain when i'm stuck in denial
Cause I deny all desire and I will burn in this fire
And I will look to the sky and I will give up

I won't break down I won't ever break down
I won't break down I won't ever break down

You will never break me
Never ever take my heart away from me
You will never lead me into the darkness where I can't see
Cause where i'll go she will go
And that angel will save me
Cause where I go she will go
And those demons won't find me

i'm never gonna see light but if I die I might as well take all of them with me
You don't know the injuries
You don't know all the things they put me through
You don't know all the fucked up things that my mind will always do
So tell me wheres my angel
Tell me wheres the one that will save me even though i'm so goddamn scared that she'll tear me apart
Fuck that I don't wanna burn in my own hell
Fuck that I won't let them rule me
Fuck that I don't wanna burn in my own hell
Fuck that
Fuck that
Fuck that

I won't break down I won't ever break down

I won't break down I won't ever break down

You will never break me
Never ever take my heart away from me
You will never lead me into the darkness where I can't see
Cause where i'll go she will go
And that angel will save me
Cause where I go she will go
And those demons won't find me

Sometimes it feels like I got a big foot that just kicked me into the darkest hole
So watch me fall when I stand up i'll have my hands up ready to beat their faces
I won't stay another minute waiting for the demons to pull me under
I will bring them thunder and nothing will pull me away from her
I've been waiting for my whole life waiting for the moment when the angel will save me waiting for the moment where
I can take those demons look em in the eyes and tell them FUCK YOU
Cause yeah I got problems
And yeah my mind is a fucked up place to be but I don't want it to be cause I don't wanna burn in my own hell

You will never break me
Never ever take my heart away from me
You will never lead me into the darkness where I can't see
Cause where i'll go she will go
And that angel will save me
Cause where I go she will go
And those demons won't find me
And those demons won't find me
And those demons won't find me
And those demons won't find me
And those demons won't find me
