

Do Not Disturb

Drake

Yeah
Styling though
Dissin' but got pictures with me smiling, though
All the things you need, you still want problems though
All the things I know, I still been silent though Yeah
Used to be at Silver City Indigo
Used to be in lunchroom playing dominoes
I don't want to have to go to funerals
I gotta start sleeping at the studio
I don't have no time to be no Romeo
All the love I need is at the rodeo
All the love I need is here at OVO Yeah
All the girls I know they were Ian Throw
Who knows where I end up when the shit gets old
Baby, it never get old and that's just how it goes
Last table left in Carbone, calling plays on a rotary phone
I take a glass it don't mean "nah, don't go with me home"
Might move our annual shit to the dome
I need 40,000 people to see what I'm on Yeah
Ducked a lot spiteful moves
I was a angry yout when I was writing Views
Saw a side of myself that I just never knew
I'll probably self-destruct if I ever lose but I never do
Steady doing double shifts
I da doing the beat and I open up like a double click
More blessings because I'm generous
30 seater plane for like 10 of us
Remember when I bought Sealy the fake Chanel wallet
She knew that shit was a fraud but she never told me about it
Nowadays when we catchin' up we just laugh about it
Can't describe what my life is like when she asks about it
Scary whenever I close my eyes at night
Waking up to public statements about my private life
I can never sleep 'til morning on all my quite nights
But you can rest assure that my mind is right
Can't get no sick days
I leave for like 3 months and 6 days
Never stick around to see shit change
Get lil updates, texts in my inbox have been poppin'

Seasons go by like I'm binge watching
Went from club Paltzo in the bridge to Club Live
To not even showing up to a club unless we doing bis'
I can't even party while a nigga pursuing this
Distractions will do you in the truest sense
Especially people who want to lecture me and frame it like they just want the best for me or the check for me
Whatever splits it up so there's more for them and less for me
They don't know they got to be faster than me to get to me
No one's done it successfully
7AM in Germany, can't believe that they heard of me
Last verse that I gotta do is always like surgery
Always trying to let go of anything that'll burden me
That's the reason you can feel the tension and the urgency
Last chance I get to make sure you take it personally
Take this shit to heart, it's always executed perfectly
If we do a song it's like taking my kids to work with me
You overnight celebrity, you one day star
I swear I told you I'm in this bitch for entirety
I am a reflection of all of your insecurities
Behind closed doors, a lot of 6 God worshipping
Done talk now, 'cause theres other shit that's concerning me
There's real ones around me, I want to make sure they learn from me
I want to see my dog but his grandmother's his surety
He can't even dip out to see me in an emergency
My life is set around competition and currency
Taking summer off 'cause they tell me I need recovery
Maybe gettin' back to my regular life will humble me
I'll be back in 2018 to give you the summary
More Life
