Sugarcoat It

DC Talk

Movin' at the speed of sound
There has never been a lull in the motion
Conversations swirled around
Strangers questioning their devotion
Welcome to the world of talk shows
Where everybody seems to knowPeople talk and never listen
Come to their conclusions
So we'll feed 'em with the spoon
That makes the medicine go downBaby, you got it, baby, we wrote it
Maybe you thought that we sugarcoat it
Ain't gonna hide it, gotta expose it
Yeah, we're gonna let our light shineStanding on the stage of life
We are waiting for the final curtain
You can take a seat and watch tonight
But you're gonna get more than you came forBam and welcome to our jam
Where folks are getting down
The Jesus freaks from
Every part of this here townYou can try and ask us why
We came to this solution
Though words may fly
You can't deny
It's in the air tonightBaby, you got it, baby, we wrote it
Maybe you thought that we sugarcoat it
Ain't gonna hide it, gotta expose it
Yeah, we're gonna let our light shineBaby, you got it, baby, we wrote it
Maybe you thought that we sugarcoat it
Ain't gonna hide it, gotta expose it
Yeah, we're gonna let our light shine
Let our light shine, let our light shine
Let us shine, let us shineBoom, they thought we'd change our tune
They thought that we'd go bust
They thought we'd crumble
Like my grandma's flaky crustKapow, up in the here and now
The truth is screaming big
A light so bright whether day or night
It can't be hidBaby, baby, you got it,
Baby, we wrote it, ain't gonna hide it
Yeah, we're gonna let our love light shineBaby, you got it, baby, we wrote it
Maybe you thought that we sugarcoat it

Ain't gonna hide it, gotta expose it
Yeah, we're gonna let our light shineLet your love shine, let your love shine
Let your love shine, let your love light shine
Your love light shineLet your love shine, let your love shine
Let your love shine, let your love light shine
Sugarcoat it
