

Before You Go

Lonnie Brooks

Come here baby, have a seat
We need to talk, honey
We need a long, long, long talk
You see, the things getting very, very serious
We need this talk Where have you been?
And what you've been doing?
Who you've been seeing?
Why do you wanna hurt me again? Just a fourth of your questions
That I need to know
Before you go I'm so lonely as a man can be
Only your love can set me free
Please forgive me if I did wrong
I can't take it any long Just a fourth of your questions
That I need to know
Before you go Just a fourth of your questions
That I need to know
Before you go So lonely, every night you gone
So sad, I hurt so bad
Your love, best I ever had Please don't leave me, please don't go
That fourth of your questions
I won't ask anymore
Please don't go That fourth of your questions
I won't ask anymore
Please don't go
