

Calling All Skeletons

Alkaline Trio

Here it is again, yet it stings like the first time
Seems it never ends, double nickels on your dime
I thought we were friends, I guess it just depends who you ask
These feelings tend to leave me with a hole in my chest
A hole, a hole in my chest
Yeah, hole, a hole in my chest
Now the time has come I just wish I could erase
All the damage done to your name and your keepsakes
Only just begun, it's been fun, we were blind, deaf and dumb
There's a body in my closet calling all skeletons
All skel, all skeletons
Calling all
Where did you go once the lights went black?
Look what's become of me
I've come to love your disappearing act
Do one more pretty please
Now the time has come I just wish I could erase
Saw the damage done, all this pain, all this heartache
Only just begun, it's been fun, we were fucked up and numb
There's a killer on the corner and he's looking for love
He's loo, looking for love
Yeah, he's looking for
Where did you go once the lights went black?
Look what's become of me
I've come to love your disappearing act
Do one more pretty please
And to tell you the truth I lost my faith in you
You gotta stop sneaking up on me
And these unspoken lies appear at the worst times
You gotta stop sneaking up on me
They're hiding just beyond your eyes
Where did you go once the lights went black?
Look what's become of me
I've come to love your disappearing act
Do one more pretty please
Where did you go once the lights went black
You nearly gave us a heart attack
We thought you might as well love to see
You gotta stop sneaking up on me
Gotta stop sneaking up on me
