

Come And Save Me

Gloriana

The sky, it keeps on changing colors in the rain
Nothing ever seems to stay the same
But I, I found you to my surprise
I found all I needed in your eyes
And everyone keeps leaving
But you stayed when I held you tonight
And let my heart go free
Hold me close
Now until forever I'll be unafraid
Hold me close
Give me back my reason to believe
Come and save me
Love, nothing ever takes the place of love
It breaks through all the madness
Like a flood you washed away my fears

And let my heart go free
Hold me close
Now until forever I'll be unafraid
Hold me close
Give me back my reason to believe
Come and save me
Hold me close
Now until forever I'll be unafraid
Hold me close
Give me back my reason to believe
Come and save me
Come and save me
Come and save me
I found you tonight
