

My Wish

Linda Clark

My wish for you in these times of war
Your innocence stolen and longs to embrace these weary souls
I wish for you peace and grace in your life
And when you see the sky, remember these nights
The thundering sound of freedom ignitesGo where you have to go
Do what you have to do
Be who you're meant to be, just love with all your heartDream only peaceful dreams
Cry only happy tears
Sing only songs of joy and love with all your heartYour life is so new in this world full of old souls
I wonder just what life will unfold when it's all through
When you're no longer mine to have and to hold
Just look to the sky, reach arms way up high
Spread your lovely wings and learn to flyGo where you have to go
Do what you have to do
Be who you're meant to be, just love with all your heartDream only peaceful dreams
Cry only happy tears
Sing only songs of joy and love with all your heart
