

Dream (Feat. Sam Scarfo)

Ne-Yo

There's no problem that I can't solve
In a test of our love
If your love was multiple choice
You'd be all of the above
You're the answer to all my questions
No need to cheat
Together we're the perfect score
You make me complete
I never seen a woman
With so much beauty and class
My heart was always a failure
Until you helped me pass
I wanna give you my all now
No more excuses
Cause without you in my life
My life is just useless
I played every game in the book
But you changed my perspective
And for the first time Love, my only objective
Our moments can be feelings
Things aren't always what they seem
Baby if I'm sleeping
Please don't wake me from this dream
Don't wake me from this dream Your heart and I engaged
In a game of hide and seek
Since our very first encounter
I was playing finders keep
No need to look no further
Already found my soulmate
Although it took a while
Baby you were the whole way
Baby can't you understand
(Can't you understand)
I wanna put a ring on your hand
Baby I can't say that I'm perfect
We both know I'm not
But I think it's time
That we tie the knot
Cause I played every game I played every game in the book

But you changed my perspective
(Changed my perspective, yeah yeah yeah)And for the first time
Love, my only objective
Our moments can be feelings
Things aren't always what they seem
Baby if I'm sleeping
Don't wake me from this dreamBaby, you're the one
That makes me whole
You're warming up my soul
At the same time
You're breaking my heart
I knew we would fall in love from the startI played every game in the book
But you changed my perspective
(Changed my perspective)
And for the first time
Moments can be feelings
Things aren't always what they seem
Baby if I'm dreaming
Please don't wake me from this dream
